A MESSAGE FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

Liebe Mitglieder - Dear Members,

With the year 2013 in the second month, the Entertainment Committee and Culture Committee have lined up some great entertainment and cultural events for you. Participation at these events from our membership is imperative to keep our culture and heritage alive. We have a membership of approximately 1,000 members. Supposedly the membership criteria to join the Delaware Saengerbund is your interest in our German Heritage. With such a large membership brings me back to the question, why are you not participating in some of these events?

No one can complain about your officers and committees doing their part to keep our members interested. This is a very difficult task and we are trying to provide entertainment for everyone, blending the old with the new. Our entire membership loves the Oktoberfest and many of our members become "German for a weekend". Once the Oktoberfest is over, the support of our cultural events is gone with our "weekend Germans" until Oktoberfest time comes around the following year. As I have stated before, we are so much more than the DSB Oktoberfest and the ever flowing beer.

Many of the planned events involve large expenditures and these bills must be paid whether the participation involves 5 or 500 people. The band, food, and large facility overhead become part of the equation with every event held. On March 16th your Culture Committee has planned a display with some of the historical items that make us what we are.....a German cultural organization that is celebrating our 160 continuous years in existence. Make a decision to become part of our "community" of members as only through participation will you gain knowledge.

Come out and enjoy the music, it doesn't matter if your preference is Lady Gaga or Heidi u. das Heimat Echo. Come with your friends and enjoy the Gemütlichkeit of your heritage, supposedly one of the reasons why every single person became a member of the Delaware Saengerbund.

Mit freundlichen Grüßen,

Norma Grieb

Quick note from the Communication Secretary

Keep in mind that the newsletter is posted on our web site www.delawaresaengerbund.org much earlier than the actual delivery of the paper copy. To get the latest news of the DSB check the site in a few days (perhaps five) after each monthly general membership meeting. At any general membership meeting provide me with your email address, or email me at gmeehan@comcast.net, and when the newsletter is posted on the site you will get a notification email.

The Bauernstube

Stop by and enjoy the new beers at the Bauernstube

Zwickillager from Bavaria, this is a unfiltered lager

Dampfbier A Steamy Brew for the Common Folk

The Dampfbier (steam beer) style got its name from the common folk. As a warm-fermented ale, the brew produces copious amounts of foam and bubbles on the surface in the vat. As these surface bubbles burst, they give the appearance — at least to the non-brewer — that the ferment is boiling, even "steaming." Though brewed in several parts of Germany — including the coal and steel area of the Ruhr region of Westphalia, where the Borbeck Dampf-Bier Brauerei has recreated a modern version of the style — the brew had been a specialty mostly of the Bavarian Forest, when it vanished in the early 20th century. It was revived there, however, in 1989 by the Erste Dampfbierbrauerei (First Steam Beer Brewery) of the small town of Zwiesel, on the occasion of that brewery's centenary. Since then, the brew has been making a slow comeback. One of the more prominent Dampfbiers comes from the Maisel brewery in Bayreuth, Bavaria.

Big Eddy Baltic Porter

Chippewa Falls, WI) – The Jacob Leinenkugel Brewing Company is rolling out Big Eddy Baltic Porter, a hearty dark beer with a clean lager finish, perfect for any beer enthusiast. Big Eddy Baltic Porter is the third in a series of Big Eddy brews by Leinenkugel's in 2012. Big Eddy Baltic Porter creates a warming blanket of malt flavor with seven select malts, including Munich, Crystal Rye, Roasted Barley, Special B, Chocolate malt and a blend of Pale malts. The beer is interwoven with notes of toffee, cocoa, caramel, toasted bread and sherry fruit flavors, creating a brew bold in character, yet remarkably balanced with an ABV of 8.5 Percent. Influenced by the melting pot of cultures and techniques from the Baltic region in the late-1700s, this Baltic Porter takes notes from the porters, stouts and Russian Imperial Stouts being shipped through the Baltic region from the United Kingdom and applies lager brewing techniques learned from Bavarian brewers.

Stop by the Bauernstube for a meal and a cold beer Thursday or Friday from 6:00 PM – 9:00PM.

160th Stiftungsfest:

“To the Members of the Delaware Saengerbund:-

“On the 17th of March, the Delaware Saengerbund will have completed Fifty years of its existence as a singing society, which was due to the hard work and general sociability of its members...”

President H. Zimmermann signed and sent this letter to all members of the Delaware Saengerbund on February 9, 1903 to invite them to the 50th Stiftungsfest celebration. 110 years later, the reason for success and longevity of the Delaware Saengerbund is still ..due to the hard work and general sociability of its members! ...

Celebrate with us on March 16th, with a reception in the von Steuben Zimmer at 6:30 PM, and read the original letter! It is part of an exhibit of old Saengerbund records which the Culture Committee will present in the von Steuben Room. To highlight the new DSB Constitution, a display of all the DSB constitutions will be featured as well. (By the way, if anyone knows of constitutions written in the years between 1908 and 1975, please contact the Culture Committee!)

Heimatkunde

Did you know ?

From last month's newsletter: The local inhabitants refer to Augsburg with a nickname {Spitznamen}.

The Nickname of Augsburg is "Datschiburg" which is based on the claim by the folks in Augsburg to have invented the plum cake, in German Zwetschgen / Pflaumenkuchen/ Zwetschgendatschi "Datschi" is supposed to stem from the dialect words " detschen or datschen" i.e. pinching or pressing since the plums were pinched in the dough. In reality there are many variants and claims to fame (as confirmed during the recent GGG presentation by two German exchange students from UD) in other parts of Bavaria, Baden - Wuerttemberg, areas in Austria and in Rhineland and the Eifel.

The Kinderfest Committee

Needs Your Help!

On June 1st, 2013, the Enzian Volkstanzgruppe will be hosting the 20th annual Mid-Atlantic Kinderfest. This is an annual event which encourages children to embrace our German heritage by continuing German folk dancing. We anticipate about 250 children from New England to Virginia to participate. This is not a fund raiser; it is a free event for all participants. The Enzian Volkstanzgruppe hopes to defray some of the expenses through a raffle. In an effort to have fantastic baskets to raffle off at our Kinderfest, we are asking the DSB general membership to donate children-friendly items, such as toys, games, books, candy, crayons, pencils, erasers, DVDs (please only G and GP rated), etc.. Even if every family donates only one item, we'll have a lot of things to raffle off. Please bring all donations to the DSB general meetings or to any dance practice on Thursday evenings. If you have any questions or comments, please contact Louise Kirkpatrick at (302) 547-5286 or MaryCay Armstrong at (302) 479-0175. Thank you in advance for your generous support!

On the 10th we hosted our annual Coffee & Cake and welcomed a full house! Make sure to watch for this yearly event since each year we hear how much everyone loves the afternoon of great food, great company, and the opportunity to run the teenagers a little ragged in their finest clothes! The TAG group especially wants to thank Heinz Ambrosch for the delicious cakes that he prepared for our event.

The menu for the TAG Frühschoppen will consist of weisswursts, sweet mustard, pretzels, weiss bier, and assorted German lunchmeats and cheese. Due to the special nature of this event, seating reservations will be required. All reservations must be made through e-mail to bkderby@comcast.net. A confirmation e-mail will be sent when your e-mail is received and all reservations must be received by Monday, April 8, 2013. Guten Appetite!
