A Message From Your President

Freunde,

As we start a new year with optimism and anxiety, we need to take a moment to reflect on the passing year. Our losses were heartfelt in the passing of old friends. We joyously Thank Vicki and Daniela for their service to the Delaware Saengerbund and wish them all the best. We can look at our club with pride, knowing that our facility is in good repair and will continue to host our many internal groups and be a welcomed find for all our neighbors looking for a place to celebrate. Thank you to all who participated in Oktoberfest, Picnic, Parties, and any function that promoted our mission statement. Let's make an effort in the coming year to increase our participation in the many social offerings we have available. HERE IS TO US IN THE NEW YEAR!!!

Tschuess!

Don Sturmfels

SINGERS

As the holiday music wafts through the air and Father Time strikes the midnight hour, the Singers wish everyone PROSIT NEU JAHR!

Many community guests enjoyed the beautiful Adventskonzert and delighted in the Culture Committee's reception of the delicious Ambrosch-baked goodies.

The Singers sang and rang out the year with a concert at the little Sisters of the Poor and at our own Tannenbaumabend.

Following a festive Christmas party the Singers will rest their voices until January 8 when rehearsals resume at 7:30p.m. New singers are always welcome and the new year is a good time to join the chorus! Did you know that singing promotes well-being and leads to a good physical and psychic balance in all age groups?

The Spring schedule will be a busy one with participation in the Cannstatter Liederabend, our own Stiftungsfest and the Spring Concert in May

DSB BLITZ
JANUARY, FEBRUARY, MARCH

JANUARY: PROSIT NEU JAHR (Happy New Year) Wishes for a prosperous and healthy 2020 to all of you! The new year begins with many hopes and promises as well as plans and commitments. Hopefully your understanding of the German words and programs explained in the previous Blitz articles is now much clearer and you will participate more frequently in these programs celebrating our German heritage.

JANUARY'S general meeting is highlighted by the INAUGURAL BALL. At this time we welcome new officers and say 'DANKE' to outgoing officers. The Ladies prepare a festive dinner for this event followed by a short meeting. The evening continues with a live band for dancing and general GEMUETLICHKEIT. The officers wear formal attire and members may also do so or follow the dress code requested for our evening events. This is a special opportunity to recognize the tremendous amount of volunteer hours that officers give to leading and maintaining our beautiful club and property.

FEBRUARY is the time of carnival - FASCHING or MARDI GRAS, the weeks prior to Ash Wednesday. In Germany there are week-long celebrations along the Rhine, in Munich and in almost every small town where today's events have more political overtones and politicians enjoy poking fun at one another. FASCHING at the DSB offers members a fun-filled evening with the opportunity to create and dress up in costumes. Although wearing a costume is encouraged, it is not mandatory. Prizes are awarded for the funniest, most original, best group, individual, etc. A live band performs for dancing and food is available for purchase.

A more somber period follows the FASCHING season that leads up to Easter. During MARCH, however, the DSB celebrates its anniversary known as the STIFTUNGSFEST! On March 17, 1853 several men gathered at their favorite STAMMTISCH (table reserved for a group on a specific day and time) in Krauch's tavern on King Street in Wilmington and decided to form a MAENNERCHOR. In 2020 we will be 167 years old and we celebrate close to the March 17 date with a program presented by our chorus as well as the EVTG. Members are encouraged to attend and to recognize that our club is one of the oldest and very active organizations in Delaware.

This is the last BLITZ as it completes each month's explanation of our programs that are usually designated with a German title. So, come out, join in, volunteer and participate!

"One, Two, Three"

What was it like to live in Berlin before the Wall divided the city?

Director Billy Wilder has turned these times into a comedy as only he can do. The film was started in 1961, but because of the rising tensions and the closing of the Russian Sector, the filming had to be finished in Munich.

In English/German with English subtitles, b/w, 115 min., starring Horst Buchholz, Liselotte Pulver, Arlene Francis and James Cagney

Germanic Genealogy Group

Alex Haley said "In all of us there is a hunger marrow-deep, to know our heritage, to know who we are and where we have come from".

That is why the Genealogy Group meets. If this speaks to you, join us. The meetings take place on Sunday afternoons in the von Steuben Room. They will begin at 3:15 pm.

Meetings are open to all members. We invite you to attend our programs this year.

Jan 19th, Sunday 3:15 pm – Meet two of our members who were born in Germany. They have very different stories to tell. They highlight the heart of our membership, ie vast different experiences but all with a love of the German Culture. Come hear their stories

Feb 16th, Sunday 3:15 pm – Two UD exchange students from Germany. They are charming and articulate. They will share with us the geography of their homes:

Jacob Niessner from the Darmstadt – attends University in Heidelberg

Theodor Weinert from Berlin where he attends University. He was born in Hamburg

WHAT IS FASCHING ALTERNATIVELY CALLED KARNEVAL

Fasching alternatively called Karneval depending on the region officially begins on November 11, at 11:11 although the celebrating generally starts on January 7, the day after Dreikoenigstag and continues through midnight on Shrove Tuesday (also known as Fat Tuesday). Why is November 11 so important? After the French Revolution, The French under Napoleon took over part of the Rhineland.

It is a time of festivity and merry making –a time to break the rules, poke fun at those who make them and then to make your own new rules. In Germany, particularly in the Rhineland area, the tradition can be traced to medieval times where many countries existed under harsh rules.

Parties, parades, costumes and craziness ensue throughout the period, though the majority of celebrations occur in the final weeks, culminating with massive parades on Carnival Sunday or Rose Monday (Monday before beginning of Lent).

Celebrated mostly in Roman Catholic or Christian Orthodox areas, these celebrations provide a last chance for food and festivities before the lean days of lent. Each region features its own unique customs and traditions. Roughly speaking, Bavaria and central and east Austria celebrate Fasching with outrageous costumes and silly parades: Germany's Rhineland holds Karneval, with its politically-themed satires and military-esque costumes poking fun at historical French and Prussian invaders.

Fasching in its present form dates back to the middle ages when oppressed peasants would vent their discontent through plays and satires, poking fun at the ruling class from behind the safety of elaborate masks and costumes.

Though cities like Cologne, Munich and Würzburg draw literally millions of people to their parties, virtually every town and village has its own celebration and residents throw themselves into the Fasching fun with the same enthusiasm that Americans show when celebrating Halloween.

In many areas, when the Fasching festivities end on Shrove Tuesday (the day before Ash Wednesday), a straw man is burned in a bonfire late in the night, symbolizing the cleansing of all the sins committed during the festival. The party can only go until midnight, because then it's Ash Wednesday, and time for austerity. Another symbol of the end of the festival is the ceremonial death of the Fasching Prince.
